Presenters

Michelle Stubbs

Michelle is currently a Clinical Educator with the University of Newcastle and Charles Sturt Universities, who in addition has worked as a Registered Nurse for the past 14 years, specialising in Anaesthetics and Recovery. Michelle is also a member of ASPAAN, the American Society of Post Anaesthesia & Anaesthesia Nurses (ASPAN), and the Australian College of Nursing (ACN). She was also a former committee member of the NSW OTA, Zone 1. Michelle has co-developed and implemented an innovative role within the Perioperative Service at The John Hunter Hospital - “The Surgical Liaison Nurse”. From this project she has authored articles published in the Newcastle Herald and Nursing Review. Additionally the project has been accepted onto the ARCHI website which Michelle authored. This research has been presented by Michelle at several research conferences within New South Wales and received a Health Improvement Award for Empowering Patients at the Hunter New England Health Quality Awards in 2013. Michelle is strongly committed to education. She holds a Bachelor in Nursing, Graduate Certificate in Anaesthetics and Recovery Room Nursing, a Diploma in Nursing and a Masters in Nursing, majoring in Education.

Jenny Muir

Jenny is the Nurse Unit Manager of John Hunter Hospital’s Operating Suite. After completing her Advanced Diploma of Government in 2009 she has chosen to focus her attention on staff education and patient centered excellence. She has published research alongside Michelle Stubbs and implemented an imperative service called ‘The Surgical Liaison Nurse’. Additionally, this research/service was the Winner of the 2013 HNE Health Award for Empowering Patients. Jenny has developed and coordinated educational programs for staff entering into the world of ‘Theatre Nursing’. She is passionate about perioperative nursing as a whole and brings to the table over 30 years experience and excellence in all areas Scrub and Scout focused.

Education at Sea makes every effort to ensure the advertised presenters deliver the program. However in the unlikely event a presenter is unavailable Education at Sea reserves the right to use a suitably qualified substitute presenter.