Dr. Paula Foran PhD RN, FACORN, FACPAN, MACN

Dr Paula Foran has worked in education for over 30 years. Rather than learning about how students learn, her focus has been on how adults learn to become teachers.

Paula's qualifications include a Graduate Diploma in Adult Education and Training, Certificate IV in Assessment and Workplace Training, Master (research) in Professional Education and Training and a PhD in Philosophy (Education).

Paula's doctoral research looked at the value of 'guided' verses 'non-guided' workplace learning, namely the importance of guided teaching for students gaining practical experience in the workplace.

Helen Miralles

Helen Miralles has worked as a teacher for over 40 years in various educational settings. Helen's qualifications include a Diploma of Teaching and Bachelor of Education and these have allowed her to work all around Australia including remote Northern Territory, and at an International School in Kuwait.

Helen has been a classroom teacher; Primary and Secondary levels, and worked as a Specialist in both Special Needs Education and English as a Second Language Areas.

Helen is committed to helping teachers keep the joy of learning and teaching alive throughout their careers.

Jean-Michel Filippi:

Jean-Michel Filippi is a professor of Khmer studies at the Royal University of Phnom Penh. He holds a Ph.D. in linguistics and master's degrees in anthropology and mathematics.

He specialises in the description of the Khmer language and various minority languages of Cambodia and Southeast Asia. He is currently in charge of a UNESCO program about minority languages and cultures in Cambodia's Cardamom Mountains.

Jean-Michel has published several articles and books about these topics, mainly in French and Khmer, but also in English, including "Everyday Khmer" and the soon to be published "Preliminary Researches About Cambodian Minority Languages". Apart from linguistics, he has always had a great interest in Cambodian history and art.

His wealth of knowledge on Cambodia makes him a fascinating speaker on a diverse range of topics.

enquiries@educationatsea.com.au

Following the introduction by Jean-Michel Filippi, you will meet with a local Khmer PhD holder with over a decade of experience working in government schools. With years of experience in both primary and secondary education, as well as university level teaching, our guest speaker will provide valuable insight into the Khmer education system.

Paula and Helen will then take over as they discuss desired learning outcomes from the conference. They will tell you more about what you can expect to see over the next week as you visit different schools and learn about the university, government, and private education systems in the country.

Lunch: 1pm to 2pm

Afternoon: 2pm to 5pm

Visit a local university and meet with educators and students on the path to becoming teachers. Learn about the differences in required criteria for private and government teachers in Cambodia.

Evening: 6pm to 10pm

'BOUTIQUE COCKTAIL TOUR'

Journey around the city by tuk tuk experiencing the energy that makes up Cambodia's capital whilst enjoying artful mixology.

Morning: 10am

PHNOM PENH HISTORY HALF DAY TOUR

Your half day tour this afternoon is designed to give you an insight into the horrors of Cambodia's past, but also a sense of the optimism of its people. You will begin with the emotive settings of the detention centre S21 at Tuol Sleng and the 'Killing Field' of Choeung Ek.

Please be aware that the exhibits are, by their very nature, both graphic and disturbing, highlighting the atrocities committed against an entire population during one of the most terrifying periods in Cambodia's history.

Day 3:

Sun 12th January 25
Aquarius Hotel and
Urban Resort

Evening: 4.45pm

SUNSET BOAT CRUISE ON THE MEKONG RIVER INCLUDING DRINKS AND CANAPES

This evening as the sun descends head out on your own private boat into the Mekong River and enjoy the skyline of Phnom Penh as darkness falls.

Day 4:

Mon 13th January 25

La Passion

Saracen Bay, Koh Rong

Samloem

Morning: 8am

At 8am we board our bus for the journey to Sihanoukville. This will take approximately 3 hours. On arrival to Sihanoukville, delegates will visit a local Khmer government school, meet the principles and staff, and tour the campus grounds and classrooms.

After some lunch we will board the speed boat for a short journey to Saracen Bay, Koh Rong Samloem to the 4* La Passion Resort.

Day 5:

Tue 14th January 25

La Passion

Saracen Bay, Koh Rong

Samloem

Morning: 11am to 4pm

After breakfast we will take a traditional Khmer long tail boat to the village of M'Pai Bei.

Here you will visit to local primary school. With few teachers and small buildings, you will see what education is like for the children of this small fishing community.

You will enjoy lunch at a nearby restaurant and enjoy snorkeling on the way back to Saracen bay.

DAY 6:

Wed 15th January 25

FCC Angkor, Siem

Reap

Today we make the short trip to Siem Reap, gateway to Angkor Wat, the world's largest religious monument and the heart and soul of Cambodia.

Following a short 40 minute flight, we will arrive at the iconic FCC Hotel, where you will have time to enjoy a casual swim in the tranquil surrounds before our evening cocktail party.

Evening: 5pm to 6pm

Enjoy tantalising cocktails and canapé's as we watch sunset over the river at our welcome to Siem Reap reception. Here you will learn about all this enchanting city has to offer.

Day 7:

Thu 16th January 25
FCC Angkor, Siem
Reap

Morning: 9am

This morning we will meet with a Western teacher with decades of experience in teaching and teacher training in Southeast Asia. You've learned about the Cambodian education system on the Khmer side, and today you will hear what it is like as a Western educator in the region.

Afternoon: Private school visit

Following lunch we will visit a private school and meet with the staff. Here you will witness firsthand the major differences between Khmer government schools and private education facilities

Day 8:

Fri 17th January 25
FCC Angkor, Siem
Reap

ANGKOR SUNRISE & FULL DAY TEMPLE EXPLORATION

Wake up early this morning to depart at 4:45 AM, to see the amazing sunrise at Angkor Wat, a bucket list item on any trip to Siem Reap, the pre-dawn view provides a different and tranquil feeling in the cool of the morning. We will return to your hotel in time for Breakfast.

We start today with a visit to Angkor Thom, the ancient royal city of the Khmer Empire with its centrepiece; the Bayon temple. Although it may look like a shapeless mass of stone, further scrutiny reveals towers with enigmatic faces of former King Jayavarman VII. Continue to the Terrace of the Elephants, which served as a platform from where the King could welcome back his victorious army and the Terrace of the Leper King, which holds perfect carvings winding along a narrow passageway that leads to the Baphuon complex.

Next head to the picturesque Ta Prohm. This temple is considered to be Angkor's most beautiful structure and is overgrown with fig trees, giving a haunting yet exotic atmosphere. The magnificent roots of the trees have merged over the centuries with the temple's huge stone blocks, emphasizing a 'forgotten city' feeling.

Enjoy Lunch at a local restaurant nearby Srah Srang lake before continuing to Angkor wat. In the afternoon, visit the most famous of all the temples on the Angkor plain: Angkor Wat. The temple complex covers 81 hectares and is comparable in size to the Imperial Palace in Beijing.

Its distinctive five towers are emblazoned on the Cambodian flag and the 12th century masterpiece is considered by art historians to be the prime example of classical Khmer art and architecture

Angkor Wat's five towers symbolize Meru's five peaks, the enclosed wall represents the mountains at the edge of the world and the surrounding moat symbolizes the ocean beyond.

This morning is yours to do with as you'd like. Explore Siem Reap, go shopping, or simply relax in the hotel pool!

Afternoon: Tonle Sap Floating village

This afternoon we'll take a drive to the Tonle Sap lake. Once we arrive,, we'll boat to one of the lake's floating village communities and gain an insight into how the villagers live and what local life is like.

We'll then continue the journey out onto the lake with a cold drink to watch as the sun descends before heading back to the hotel.

Morning session: 9am to 1pm - Paula & Helen

This morning you will review your experiences over the course of the conference. You have learned about education at the university level, in government run schools, and private institutions. How can you incorporate what you've learned into your own classroom environments? Paula and Helen will help you compare and contrast how these different systems function, while bridging the gap between education in Cambodia and in Australia.

For our last session today we will explore our knowledge and skills in this area of antenatal and birthing care.

EVENING: 6pm

Farewell Gala Dinner:

7 COURSE DEGUSTATION GALA DINNER AT THE FAMOUS "LUM ORNG" RESTAURANT.

Here, owner-chef Sothea Seng cooks New Mekong Cuisine from Cambodia and beyond, based on seasonal produce from his farms, local markets, and growers across the region.
