CONFERENCE SYNOPSIS

Nursing fundamentals refer to the essential principles, skills, and knowledge that form the basis of nursing practice. They encompass a wide range of foundational concepts and abilities that nurses must master to provide patients safe, effective, and therapeutic care. These essential principles change based on the latest research, and this conference will update this core knowledge to reflect what is expected in 2025.

Some of the critical components of nursing fundamentals that our presenter will explore in this conference program include: Patient safety, effective communication, latest infection control guidelines, critical thinking, ethical and legal awareness, cultural competence, leadership and teamwork, and Medication Management.

These key components improve patient outcomes and enhance the overall healthcare experience.

Additionally, our presenter will explore the concepts of finding joy in the work, managing the response to workplace stress, and developing great relationships in the workplace.

This will include a workshop focusing on stress management techniques and strategies to promote the clinician's psychological health.

DAY TWO: 23RD FEBRUARY 2025 | AT SEA | CONFERENCE DAY

0900 – 0930: Conference Orientation | Sue Walker and Jason Dawson

Meet with Conference Convenors and Facilitators for this orientation session to the conference content. You can also get all your questions answered regarding any optional tours you may have chosen. Find out where our nightly meeting place will be for the group and about our fundraiser for our chosen charity.

Then spend the rest of the day orientating yourself with what the venue has to offer.

0930 – 1030: Scope of Practice | Sue Walker

“While the foundational education of RNs, ENs, NPs and midwives in Australia captures the full breadth of the scope of the profession at the graduate entry level, the scope of practice of individual practitioners is influenced by the settings in which they practise. This includes the health needs of people, the level of competence and confidence of the nurse or midwife and the policy requirements of the service provider. As the nurse or midwife gains new skills and knowledge, their individual scope of practice changes.”

In this session we will explore scope of practice and delegation framework.

1030 – 1100: Break

1100 – 1200: The Concept of Incivility

Incivility in healthcare refers to rude or disrespectful behaviour that can disrupt the working environment, impact teamwork, and ultimately affect patient care. Incivility can occur between healthcare professionals, such as doctors, nurses, and support staff, as well as between healthcare workers and patients or their families.

We will explore the Forms of Incivility, causes, Impact, and strategies to address incivility in the workplace.

1200 – 1300: Why Workplace Manners Matter and what do they look like in 2025

Workplace manners, often referred to as workplace etiquette, are the behaviours and practices that promote respect, professionalism, and effective communication in a professional setting. These manners help create a positive and productive work environment, fostering good relationships among colleagues, supervisors, and clients. Let's investigate what they look like in practice and dissect your experience in the workplace.

DAY SEVEN: 28TH FEBRUARY 2025 | AT SEA | CONFERENCE DAY

0800 – 0900: Communication and Advocacy: Effective Communication is at the Heart of Nursing Fundamentals

Nurses need to communicate with patients, families, and interdisciplinary teams to ensure coordinated and patient-centred care. Moreover, nurses often act as patient advocates, ensuring that patients' voices are heard, and their safety maintained. Let's explore best practice communication strategies.

0900 – 1000: Patient Safety: What are the Current Safety Concerns in our Healthcare System

Medication management and incidents continue to be a cause of adverse events as does communication as we have discussed in the previous sessions. Here we will discuss trends in adverse events and how we can modify practice to minimise same.

1000 – 1030: Break

1030 – 1130: Medication Administration

As previously discussed, nurses must be proficient in safely administering medications, including understanding dosage calculations, routes of administration, potential side effects, and drug interactions. In this session, we will explore newly released medications on the Australian market and test our calculation skills.

1130 – 1230: Critical Thinking and Problem Solving

This skill enables the Nurse to analyse complex situations and make informed decisions. This is vital in emergency situations when split-second decisions can impact patient outcomes. How do we cultivate critical thinking and how can we mentor our colleagues in the workplace?

1230 – 1430: Lunch

Afternoon: Self-directed CPD Activities | Access via the online library

Let's Practice those Medication Calculation Skills

There are a number of activities in the online library for you to complete on medication calculations.

Medication Management

Test your knowledge of routine medication guidelines that underpin administration practice.

Webinar: Let's Explore Polypharmacy in the Older Adult

This presentation aims to delve into the complexities of polypharmacy in older adults, examining the risks, underlying causes, and strategies for effective management. It will provide healthcare professionals with insights and practical approaches to optimize medication use in older persons, enhance patient outcomes, and reduce adverse drug events.

1800 – 1900: Join us at the designated meeting spot to catch up and discuss the events of the day

The conference Facilitators and Presenter will be at the venue to answer any of your queries.

Puntarenas, a coastal haven nestled between the Pacific Ocean and lush rainforests. Prepare to be enchanted by the beauty of nature, the warmth of the locals, and a range of exhilarating activities that make this destination a dream come true.

Afternoon: Self-directed CPD Activities | Access via the online library

Webinar: Wounds That Won't Heal

Wound healing can be a challenging, complex process. The expectation is that all wounds will heal in a designated period of time. However, this is not always the case and clinicians are often faced with the challenge of non-healing wounds and increased expectations to "fix" this.

How do we manage these challenges? The challenge is far more than the "hole in the person", it is about "the whole person". We need to understand, assess and translate our knowledge into practice. Not always easy when we are looking at real wounds on real patients with real challenges. A holistic assessment plays an integral approach to the management plan.

This webinar explores the non-healing wound and how to approach this. It is the first part of two webinars looking at person-centred care and achieving the best outcomes.

Webinar: Bringing Clarity and Common Sense to Wound Product Selection

This webinar explores some of the most common dressings available and their mode of action. We will look at different categories and their actions as an approach to wound management. How do you choose a dressing when your "favourite" is not available? Do you know an alternative dressing?

It will take a "product-neutral" approach to product selection and look at choosing dressings according to clinical need. We will also look at the changing needs of a wound and the importance of wound assessment and changing a plan to get the best healing outcomes.

DAY NINE: 02ND MARCH 2025 | AT SEA | CONFERENCE DAY

0900 – 1000: Leadership and Team Collaboration

Healthcare is a collaborative effort, and communication skill and a teamwork mindset is necessary for effective collaboration with other healthcare professionals. What role does leadership play in collaboration and what skills do we need to work effectively as part of a team.

1000 – 1030: Break

1030 – 1130: Standards for Practice

The practice of a Registered Nurse (RN) revolves around individual-focused and evidence-grounded approaches, encompassing preventive, healing, developmental, supportive, recuperative, and palliative aspects. RNs engage in therapeutic and expert connections with individuals, as well as with families, groups, and communities. Let's explore the Standards!

1130 – 1300: Ethical and Legal Considerations

Knowledge of ethical principles and legal responsibilities provides a solid foundation to navigate ethical dilemmas and legal complexities with confidence, ensuring the safety and rights of both the Nurse and the patient. In this session we will explore our code of conduct and look at the legal situations that can arise.

1300 – 1400: Lunch

Afternoon: Self-directed CPD Activities | Access via the online library

Webinar: Infection Control

Nurses play a pivotal role in preventing healthcare-associated infections and promoting preventive strategies. In this session, we will explore the latest concepts and developing issues of concern for the healthcare setting.

Webinar: Common Mental Health Conditions

This presentation aims to provide healthcare professionals with a thorough understanding of common mental health conditions, including their symptoms, diagnosis, and management. The session will cover a range of disorders, highlighting evidence-based treatments and strategies for supporting patients' mental well-being.

1800 – 1900: Join us at the designated meeting spot to catch up and discuss the events of the day

The conference Facilitators and Presenter will be at the venue to answer any of your queries.

DAY TEN: 03RD MARCH 2025 | PORT OF CALL: PUERTO QUETZAL, GUATEMALA

0700 – 1700: Explore at our Leisure

Discover the hidden gem of Central America – Puerto Quetzal, a captivating destination where natural beauty meets cultural richness.

Unwind on sun-kissed beaches that stretch along the Pacific Ocean. Feel the soft sand between your toes as you listen to the rhythmic sound of the waves. Whether you're seeking a tranquil spot to read a book or an active beach for water sports, Puerto Quetzal's coastline has it all.

Afternoon: Self-directed CPD Activities | Access via the online library

Webinar: Anaphylaxis Update

Anaphylaxis is a severe form of allergic reaction and can be life-threatening. It is increasing in incidence and caused by many common triggers.

It is the nurses / midwives responsibility to be able to identify the presentation of an anaphylactic reaction in a patient and have the knowledge required to initiate immediate interventions based on the current guidelines.

This webinar explores the current guideline for the management of anaphylaxis.

Webinar: The Difference between Dementia, Delirium, and Depression

In this Webinar, we will explore the difference between Dementia, Delirium, and Depression.

Expert knowledge is required to differentiate between these three conditions that can have similar symptoms to the untrained eye. Poor outcomes occur for the client when treatable symptoms are left untreated as they are thought to be an expected part of the condition.

1800 – 1900: Join us at the designated meeting spot to catch up and discuss the events of the day

The conference Facilitators and Presenter will be at the venue to answer any of your queries.

DAY ELEVEN: 04TH MARCH 2025 | AT SEA | CONFERENCE DAY

0900 – 1000: Let's Explore Professional Boundaries

In nursing, professional boundaries are established as safeguards that preserve the balance between the authority of the professional and the vulnerability of the client. These boundaries delineate the distinctions between a professional, therapeutic connection and a non-professional or personal association between a nurse and an individual under their care. When a nurse breaches these boundaries, they typically engage in actions that lack professionalism and exploit the authority within the relationship.

1000 – 1030: Break

1030 – 1130: Mandatory Notifications and a Little Bit on the use of Social Media

In order to safeguard the public against potential harm, registered health professionals and their employers are obligated to submit mandatory notifications in specific, restricted situations. This obligation is a legal mandate outlined in the National Law.

In this session we will explore the issues of social media and our responsibility as clinicians.

There will be a conference summation with the opportunity for a QandA. We will finish with a big deep breath (meditation strategy) as we head back into the workforce refreshed and reinvigorated.

1130 – 1230: Cultural Competence

Exceptional healthcare requires cultural competence—sensitivity and respect for diverse backgrounds and beliefs. Nursing fundamentals emphasize cultural awareness, enabling nurses to provide care that is respectful and tailored to individual needs.

1230 – 1330: Lunch

Afternoon: Self-directed CPD Activities | Access via the online library

Let's test your knowledge of Professional Boundaries, Mandatory Notifications, and Use of Social Media

There will be a number of quizzes and puzzles in the online library to test your knowledge. You can also take them back to the workplace and test the knowledge of your peers.

Webinar: What does the nursing workforce of the future look like?

This presentation aims to explore the evolving landscape of the nursing profession, highlighting the trends, innovations, and challenges that will shape the nursing workforce of the future. It will provide insights into the skills and competencies needed, the impact of technology, and strategies to address workforce shortages and improve job satisfaction.

Webinar: How will Artificial Intelligence impact health care delivery into the future?

This webinar aims to explore the transformative potential of Artificial Intelligence (AI) in healthcare delivery, examining how AI technologies are poised to revolutionize various aspects of healthcare. The session will cover current applications, future trends, and the challenges and opportunities that AI presents for healthcare professionals and organisations.

1800 – 1900: Join us at the designated meeting spot to catch up and discuss the events of the day

The conference Facilitators and Presenter will be at the venue to answer any of your queries.

DAY TWELVE: 05TH MARCH 2025 | PORT OF CALL: MANZANILLO, MEXICO

OUR PRESENTER

Sue Walker, RN, BN, BN (ADMIN), MPH, MACN Specialist Nurse Educator

Sue is the director and co-founder of the Nurses for Nurses Network. Sue is a key contributor to the online education platform Nursing CPD – a Continuing Professional Development platform to assist Nurses in meeting their annual CPD requirements.

As a Registered Nurse, Sue holds Degrees in both Nursing and Health Administration, a Masters Degree in Public Health, as well as a number of certificate courses in Psychiatry of Ageing, Gerontology, Chemotherapy Administration, and Training and Assessment. She is also an Accredited Mental Health First Aid Trainer, Mindfulness Practitioner, and Clinical Supervisor.

Sue has extensive experience as a clinician, educator, and senior manager. She has presented at local and international conferences on many topics including, key issues in healthcare, such as the psychological impact of the work that Nurses do and how the work requirements to deliver healthcare impact the health of the clinician. Other topics presented comprise of Nursing Leadership, Emergency Management, Mental health, Aged Care, Advanced Life Support, Assertiveness, Grief and Loss, and Workplace Bullying.

Sue is passionate about making a difference in how the community and Nurses experience the healthcare system.

"Nurses are the backbone of the healthcare system and work in difficult environments that can take advantage of their commitment to ensuring the best possible care is delivered. To continue to meet professional and community expectations Nurses and Midwives need to acknowledge their unique contribution to health care delivery and assert their collective strength to safeguard the community and ensure their ongoing professional needs are recognised and met.

Healthcare should be delivered by competent, knowledgeable individuals to ensure the best possible experience for the recipient of that care. Nursing is a fabulous profession. The knowledge and skill of the individual Nurse will have the greatest influence on the happiness and health outcomes of each and every client".
